Description:

With rich, unique characters, 1929 is the first in an epic trilogy centered in the Great Depression.

1929 follows three couples through the economic collapse of 1929 and their struggles to adjust to a sudden and violent shift in lifestyle.

This mammoth novel will take listeners to a dark time in American history. A time when so many lost so much and the bonds of love and friendship were the only things that held the fabric of life together. While some say history is now repeating itself with our current economic downturn, 1929 provides hours of entertainment and escape while giving listeners a chance to connect and relate to the characters struggles of love, loss and finding hope.
